

Tier 1 Agencies

Federal Regulations require that Tier 1 Agencies establish a system by which they review their own program operations and that of their satellites. The self-monitoring can be of the local agencies own design, however, the state strongly suggest using their self-chart review forms and process. The State staff will verify self-monitoring is being done during biennial monitoring visits.